Re: Request to Withdraw Plaintiffs' Order to Show Cause for Temporary Restraining
Order and Preliminary Injunction
Index No. 14 -cv- 4030

Dear Judge Caproni:

I write in reference to the Order to Show Cause for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction filed on October 9, 2014 (document #61) and heard by your Honor on October 14, 2014.

As your Honor is aware, at the hearing I reached an agreement with opposing counsel with respect to the restoration of the work schedules of my clients Maggie Andres Crescencio and Anyeli Ovalles Hernandez. At that time we had yet to resolve the schedule cuts raised in our motion with respect to plaintiff Javier Guerrero. Opposing counsel and I have since reached an agreement with regard to Mr. Guerrero's hours of work and accordingly we request that the court withdraw our pending Order to Show Cause for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction.

Thank you for your attention to these matters

JEANNE E. MIRER, PLLC

Respectfully submitted,

APPLICATION GRANTED; the Order to Show Cause is no longer pending. Although the Court recognizes that there is no live motion for a preliminary injunction, Plaintiffs and Defendants are instructed to file on ECF the briefs that have been previously submitted to the Court.

SO ORDERED.

HON. VALERIE CAPRONI
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
